

Led by Artistic Director David Smukler and a faculty of renowned educators, the Voice Intensive has offered excellence in performance and speech training for over three decades. This year, the Voice Intensive moves across North America in a series of Moving Voice Workshops open to actors, dancers, teachers and anyone wishing to investigate the body/voice experience in performance. Explore your unique voice, deepen your relationship to the audience, and foster dynamic presence in an invigorating, inclusive and responsive environment. Each of the following workshops include work with spoken text. Please refer to our website at voiceintensive.org for details.
